FRANKFORT, OCT. 10, 1903.

(For the Roundabout.)

AN AUTUMN SOLILOQUY.

The autumn winds are sighing,
The harvest days are o'er,
And summer's smiles and sunshine
Will fill our hearts no more.

Jack-frost, his chilly fingers
Have touched the foliage green,
And many a varied color
On tree and shrub are seen.

Soon lowering clouds betoken
Despondence all around,
And Mother Earth must shortly
wear

Her same old forlorn gown.

So time is ever changing,
Fond youth must fade away,
And, like the leaves of autumn,
Must wither and decay.

FRANKFORT TO HAVE A NEW DEPOT.

(Louisville Post, Oct. 2, 1903.)

The capitol at Frankfort is older than the railroad station, but it is no uglier and no more dilapidated.

But the Louisville & Nashville railroad expects to give Frankfort a new passenger station before the State builds a new capitol.

The new freight station to be used by the Midland and the Louisville & Nashville is already under way, and it will be a great convenience to Frankfort business.

The passenger station will be more attractive to the citizens and the public generally than the freight station.

Some time ago the railroad company bought some property adjoining the depot which years ago was a market-house. The new station for passengers has been recommended, time and again by the local representatives of the road, but one obstacle after another has interposed, and the project has been postponed.

It is now said that the work will be shortly ordered. Frankfort is an important business point, and it will be given a passenger station that is worthy the capital of the State.

The property available is limited and it will have to be utilized to the utmost. It will be modern in all respects and so arranged as to facilitate the business of the company and the comfort of the passengers. The co-operation of the city authorities will be asked, and an effort made to meet all the requirements of the public. It is believed work will begin in the spring, and that the new passenger station will be the most important building erected since the city, fifty years ago, built the Capitol Hotel at the cost of $125,000.

SOCIETY EVENT.

We clip the following from the Cynthiana Democrat, of Oct. 3:

Society was out in full force on Thursday evening, when Miss Nan Fennell made her formal bow to society, with an elegant reception. The beautiful Fennell home, attractively decorated with feathery green vines and fine foliage plants, was thronged with fashionably dressed people from eight to ten. In the drawing room the line stood. Mr. Edward Fennell greeted the guests and presented them to Miss Mayme Fennell, who stood first in line, gowned in white Paris muslin and lace, with touches of pink. Miss Nan Fennell came next in white mouseline, blue sash and turquoise ornaments. Miss Carrie Brock wore a dainty frock of white pointed d'esprit and Miss Virginia Johns white organdie and last in the line was Mr. Frank Baltzelle, of Frankfort. In the next parlor Miss Sue Patterson, in white panne liberty, and Mr. George Ashbrook served the iced punch. The dining room presented a gorgeous sight, with its many cosy tete-a-tete tables surrounding the large Flemish oak central table. Cobwebby lace doilies were scattered over its shining surface, on which stood cut glass bowls of bonbons and silver candelabra containing waxen candles. A large onyx and bronze lamp with a pink crepe shade stood in the center, suffusing a roscate light over the brilliant cut glass and snowy napery of the smaller tables. Mrs. Levin Benton presided over the dining room and was assisted by Misses Bird Wells, Tommie Jett, Anna K. Swinford and Anna May Adams, who wore dainty white frocks and were indeed a veritable "rosebud garden of girls."

Mesdames Edward Fennell, J. H. Wallingford, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sprake, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lebus, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Marshall, Misses Minnie Cleveland and Nell Patton assisted the hostesses in entertaining the large coterie of guests present. The toilettes worn were exceptionally lovely and each lady seemed to vie with her neighbor in beauty and brightness.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Martha Wilkerson and daughter, Miss Susan, of the Forks of Elkhorn, are guests of her son, Mr. Geo. E. Wilkerson.

Mrs. Owen, of Winchester, and Mrs. Ben Johnson and son, Kendrick, of Franklin county, are guests of Mr. Jacob Johnson.

We have had several fine rains in the last week, which have come just in the right way to soak into the ground. Great good has been done to fall pasturage and to the small grain, which has been sown.

There came near being a serious accident on Wednesday, when Misses Beulah and Nannie Bridges, Alma and Isa Tucker were returning from the Stone-Bridges wedding. The horse they were driving took fright and ran away. After running about a mile they collided with the buggy of Mr. George Campbell, when Mr. Campbell succeeded in catching the frightened animal. Miss Bridges, who was driving, was the only one unhurt, and she was the only one who remained in the vehicle. The others were more or less hurt, Miss Alma Tucker worst of all, who had a sprained ankle, a cut on her head and other bruises. It was lucky for all that they were not killed.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

A tour of Shakespeare's delightful rustic comedy, "As You Like It," with Camilla Reynolds as Rosalind and a select company of Shakespearean players, has been arranged by Ernest Shipman of New York. The turn is limited to 30 special one night performances, and already since its first announcement in the dramatic papers, the demand for them has greatly exceeded the number to be given. Gigantic revivals of Shakespeare have become quite "the thing" of late in the larger cities, and Mr. Shipman, who is usually first in the field with the good things, has surrounded Miss Van Zile with nearly an all star cast, as the names will show. The scenic embellishments are said to be an exact reproduction of the famous $20,000 production which Julia Arthur used in New York recently.

Our city is on the list, if the demand for seats will justify the organization to stop here. We sincerely hope the many students of literature as well as other theatre goers will co-operate with our local manager in securing this attraction.

IF WE KNEW.

Why not stop to think and reason
When we call our blessings few,
That they would be great and many,
If we only knew.

All we have seems evanescent,
Transient as the early dew,
Yet it might not all be seeming,
If we only knew.

How these trifles fret and vex us,
That we live, perhaps, we rue—
Yet to live would be our glory,
If we only knew.

Still we doubt and fear and tremble,
Search in vain for hint or clew—
And our reaching would be folly,
If we only knew.

If beyond what's false and fading,
We could see the pure and true,
All our way would glow with beauty,
If we only knew.

Life we feel is something gloomy,
Short our vision, dim our view,
But there might be never dimness,
If we only knew.

Clouds illumed with day's bright dawning,
Rising splendors striking through,
These would shine along our pathway,
If we only knew.

HANDSOME TOBACCO.

Mr. J. W. Hudson, who lives near Switzer, brought to our office, on Friday, the handsomest sample of white burley tobacco that we have seen this season. The stalks were 51 inches long and the leaves averaged nearly three feet, of a clear, amber color, and almost as smooth as silk on the upper surface.

Mr. Hudson says he has about four acres of this tobacco, amounting to about 6,000 pounds, and much the greater part is like the sample. It is a magnificent crop and ought to bring the top price.

MOTHERS

Who would keep their children in good health, should watch for the first symptoms of worms, and remove them with White's Cream Vermifuge. It is the children's best tonic. It gets digestion at work so that their food does them good, and they grow up healthy and strong. 25c at Paul B. Weitzel's.

Thirty

Days Was My Life's Limit.

Agony From Inherited Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly malady, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony. I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live thirty days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The least exercise, such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. Nerve and Liver Pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the grandest remedies on earth and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."—MRS. L. J. CANTRELL, Waxahachie, Tex.

PROMINENT COLORED MAN DEAD.

On Saturday night last Aaron Smith, a prominent colored man, died at his home in the West End, after an illness of several weeks, from dropsy, complicated with other diseases.

For years he had conducted a barber-shop on Ann street, afterwards removing it to Mero street. He leaves a considerable family.

He was an honorable and upright man, commanding the respect of every body, both white and colored. The funeral and burial took place on Tuesday afternoon.

HANFORD.

When Charles B. Hanford opened his tour in Reading, Penn., recently, he inaugurated his tenth season as a star, and his twenty-second season as a Shakespearean actor. This will be the third successive season in which he has made "The Taming of the Shrew" a feature of his repertoire. Miss Drofna has been associated with Mr. Hanford for a number of years, but it was only two seasons ago that the opportunity came which brought her into immediate and brilliant prominence as a delineator of Shakespeare's women.

A boon to travelers. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Cures dysentery, diarrhoea, seasickness, nausea. Pleasant to take. Acts promptly.

BEER GARDEN.

We have had a fine prospect for the last four days for rain, but very little has fallen yet. We hope we will have more before it clears up.

Mrs. Henry Smith visited her son, Mr. Elbert Smith, Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Hughes, of Missouri, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mart. Marshall.

Mrs. Semones and Mrs. Marshall were the guests of Mrs. E. Banta last Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Lewis and Mrs. Kate Wiley visited Mrs. J. Bawner Sunday.

Miss Nellie Phyllis, of Frankfort and Mr. Elbert Goins were out grape hunting last Sunday afternoon.

The protracted meeting at Harvieland began last Saturday evening.

DONAVON.

BUYS RESIDENCE.

Mrs. Agnes Moore has purchased the frame residence of Miss Sallie Jackson, on Campbell street, between Steele and Shelby, for $2,000 cash.

FINE MEETING.

For the last two weeks Rev. M. B. Adams has been assisting the pastor of the Dry Run Baptist Church, Scott county, in a protracted meeting, which closed last Sunday. The general effect of the meeting was fine. The church was greatly revived and there were eight additions by experience and baptism, three by letter and one restoration, a total of twelve.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Scott's Emulsion is the means of life and of the enjoyment of life of thousands of men, women and children.

To the men Scott's Emulsion gives the flesh and strength so necessary for the cure of consumption and the repairing of body losses from any wasting disease.

For women Scott's Emulsion does this and more. It is a most sustaining food and tonic for the special trials that women have to bear.

To children Scott's Emulsion gives food and strength for growth of flesh and bone and blood. For pale girls, for thin and sickly boys Scott's Emulsion is a great help.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day."

"Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.
